ACTIVITY: REVISE AND PROOFREAD YOUR ESSAY TC

This activity helps you revise your essay to prepare it for submission. When you have finalized the content and organization, use the proofreading tips to polish your writing. Poor grammar and poor spelling are the easiest ways to send the wrong message to college admissions officers.

Style And Organization

-
		71	11	7	١n	ч
•	٠.	л	ш	LE	- 11	ш

Content	Style Alla Organization
Have I fully answered the essay prompt?	Is my tone appropriate?
□ Yes □ No	□ Yes □ No
Some prompts are multifaceted. Be sure your essay	It should be positive and professional.
addresses the prompt in full. If you need to more fully meet the essay's specific requirements, write down	Did I write from a personal perspective?
what you need to add.	□ Yes □ No
	Since a college application essay is a personal statement, use the first-person point of view
I	(i.e., I, me, my).
Is my writing original? □ Yes □ No
	Is my language appropriate?
Plagiarism is submitting someone else's work or ideas as your own. It is a serious offense and can jeopardize	□ Yes □ No your college admission.	Remember your audience and avoid slang and your conege aumission.	casual language. Do not show off with fancy words.
Does my essay express my individuality?	Use clear, specific language. Choose strong, descriptive
□ Yes □ No	words over vague words, such as "things," "many,"
Your essay should reflect your individual traits and	and "great."
experiences. Which paragraphs communicate your distinct qualities? Which need more work?	Is my organization effective with an engaging introduction, a relevant middle, and a strong finish?
	Are my transitions well-defined?
	☐ Yes ☐ No
II I w C 1: 5	An appealing essay often begins with an anecdote or Have I written for my audience? □ Yes □ No	statement that makes the main point. It can continue in order of importance or chronology.
Will your essay capture an admissions officer's	I attention? Is the topic appropriate for your audience? Which details are most interesting? Could you	Is my essay the right length? ☐ Yes ☐ No improve any content to make it more engaging?	Good writing makes your point in as few words as possible. Check your word count against the application's instructions, (e.g., the Common App gives you a 650 word limit for your essay).
•
	gives you a oso word mine for your essay).
Droofroading Tinc

Proofreading Tips

- Read through a printed copy of your essay to better catch typos and grammatical or formatting errors.
- Do not rely on Spellcheck. It may not catch words that are spelled correctly but misused in your essay.
- Read your essay out loud. You will catch mistakes and awkward phrases.
- Take breaks between each round of writing and revising.
- Ask a member of your College Prep Team to proofread your essay. Others will often catch errors you miss even after several readings.